MAUI DOINGS

Complaints About Poor Mail Service.

The Latest Cane Fire at Spreckelsville—An Incipient Famine.
Wailuku Water Works.

The following are extracts from the Maui News:

Over a week has elapsed since Maui has received a mail from Honolulu. Once before the News had to refer to the matter editorially and ask for a more efficient mail service. If the inter-island boats cannot perform the required service, perhaps the Malolo could be secured. The mullet don't bite any more like they did last fall at Molokai, and those that do bite didn't have opium in their mouths. It is said that the owners of the Malolo have offered to sell her to the government and perhaps it would be a good idea to buy her and set her to the task of carrying the mails.

Not Jealous of Honolulu.

The government has appropriated $1,329,672 for public needs in Honolulu, and $74,600 for Hilo. The Advertiser points out the discrepancy and generously pleads for Hilo.

The News wishes to join in this plea, so far as Hilo is concerned, because if possible more should be given to Hilo for her immediate needs. But the News would seriously regret to see one dollar taken off of the Honolulu appropriation. Every cent which was voted is needed to make Honolulu what she should be, the gate city, the garden city and the pride of the Hawaiian Islands.

Wailuku Water Works.

Practically all the pipe for the Wailuku waterworks has been strung, and the ditch is dug from the starting point at the intersection of Main street and Cemetery avenue for about two miles up Iao valley. Pipe laying began Thursday morning and has been completed from the starting point to the proposed reservoir site. Over sixty men have been at work this week, and more would have been employed if tools could have been secured.

Beef for Lahaina.

W. Decoto of Lahaina was over at Wailuku the early part of the week to secure beef for the hungry Lahaina people. It seems that they have had a regular Ladysmith of a time at Lahaina, owing to the fact that the kula potatoes were tabu. Mr. Decoto was accompanied by his wife, and of course they dropped into the Maui News office to watch us edit.

Minor Notes.

Call us Judge now.
We wish to make a pathetic appeal to the ladies of Wailuku. If you have any spare linen or cotton rags in your scrap bags, send them to the Maui News office. We need them.

With the raising of the quarantine at Lahaina and Hana, local trade and travel have commenced again. Kahului being the only tabu spot on the island.
Wanted, a drug store. There is not a better opening anywhere for a retail drug store than in Wailuku. We want one with an ice cream, soda and stationery attachment. We want one with a green light in one window and a red light in the other.

SPRECKELSVILLE LETTER.

Advices From the Advertiser's Regular Correspondent.

MAUI, March 31.—The thirty-acre field of cane burned in the latest fire at the Spreckelsville plantation was located near the mill. Report has it that the misfortune was caused by sparks from a locomotive. Since the second fire Hamakuaopoko mill in addition to Paia is assisting the Spreckelsville mill in grinding the damaged cane. At first it was thought that the loss from the big fire would be a considerable one, but now it is stated that nearly all the burnt cane will be ground and the loss will be comparatively speaking a trifling one. The three mills should grind at least 300 tons per every twenty-four hours. At that rate the estimated 5000 tons could be ground within three weeks, by working night as well as day and during Sundays. The greatest difficulty the plantation management has to contend with is to furnish sufficient means of transportation from the fields to the mills. Eighteen bullock carts have been hired in upper Makawao and Kula to aid in this purpose. Spreckelsville mill is now turning out 150 tons per diem.

The coroner's jury in the case of Aki-ona, the Chinaman said to have been killed by the bites of a dog set on him by Luna Harris, found that his death was caused by "certain injuries." Harris' trial was set for April 2nd before Judge Kalekai.

An incipient famine is in progress on Maui. There is a scarcity of flour, tea, oatmeal, barley, bran, etc. The arrival of the brig Lurline is anxiously expected.

The only schools on Maui that will not enjoy the Easter vacation are those of Wailuku district and the two Kula schools.

The steamer Bloemfontein will sail for San Francisco this afternoon with mail and a cargo of sugar for the Coast.

We wish to inform our patrons that we will not be deterred from pushing forward as rapidly as possible the construction of our electric railway and other improvements upon Pacific Heights by reason of a suit recently begun against former owners.

The development and sale of Pacific Heights lots will go on unrestrained, and parties seeking choice residence locations will find this a perfect property with an absolutely perfect title.
